EM-362 NECK-WORN MICROPHONE

The EM-362 is designed specially to suit users who have constant body movements when using a microphone, like teachers, presenters, prayer leaders. It provides a nice balance of close proximity and natural sound reproduction without worrying about clothing noise. Its unique design suspends the microphone in front of the speaker's mouth optimizing speech pick up and avoiding being brushed against by the movement of body creating unnecessary noise. High sensitivity and wide-range frequency response ensure sound clarity regardless user's movement.
